Using other libraries
Other academic libraries

Library Hub Discover has details of materials held in many UK national, academic and specialist libraries

https://discover.libraryhub.jisc.ac.uk/

WorldCat is the world’s most comprehensive catalogue with records from over 10,000 libraries worldwide

https://www.worldcat.org/
National Library of Scotland

Can pre-register online to read materials in the library

Undergraduates

- Can use the NLS for items that Edinburgh University Library does not hold
- To confirm that the NLS holds an item which cannot be provided by Edinburgh University Library, undergraduates must supply a stamped admissions form before access is permitted
- This form can be obtained from any library helpdesk and can be downloaded online
- List the items that you want to consult

Postgraduates

- Require photographic ID and proof of home address
- Postgraduates must also supply their University ID (student) cards
- Access to NLS licensed resources
Referencing and citations
Citing your sources

It is important to accurately cite your sources in your work.

Reference manager tools help you:

- Collect, organise, annotate and describe your references
- Cite them in your work
- Style your references for your dissertation, PhD thesis, journal paper or book chapter
Referencing tools

You can get help with using these through the library:

- EndNote
- Mendeley
- RefWorks
- Zotero
